

Small Stories: A Research Paradigm Across Data and Disciplines

taking place at the University of Freiburg (Germany)

from the 21st to 23rd November, 2019

Venue: University Library Festsaal, 1st floor (to be confirmed)

Organization: Graduate School GRK 1767 "Factual and Fictional Narration"; Hermann Paul School of Linguistics; Centre d'études et de recherches en lettres, arts, cinéma (CÉRILAC)

Thursday 21st November

For those already in town:

*Optional pre-programme in the afternoon:
sight seeing and/or data sessions*

6.15 – 7.45 pm Opening Plenary by Alexandra Georgakopoulou (King's College London): "Small Stories in the Social Media 'Curation' of Selves and Lives"
Introduction/Chair: Sylvie Patron

followed by dinner

Friday 22nd November

9.00-9.15 Small Stories from Psychological and Linguistic Perspectives

Welcome and short introduction

Monika Fludernik, Sylvie Patron and Stefan Pfänder

9.15-10.45

Plenary by Anna Buchheim (Dean of Faculty of Psychology, University of Innsbruck):
"From small stories to 'strange situations': the predictive impact of the 'adult attachment projective pictures system' (AAP)"

introduction and chair: Carl E. Scheidt

10.45-11.15

Coffee break

11.15-12.15

Introduction and chair: Stefan Pfänder (U. Freiburg)

Elisabeth Gülich (U. Bielefeld) and Carl E. Scheidt (U. Freiburg): "Small stories in (and on) mother infant interaction: Is the concept of 'small stories' able to account for a psychological and a conversation analytic reading of the AAP maternal storytelling?"

12.15-13.00

Brian Schiff (The American University of Paris): Are Small Stories Another Category of Narrating?

13.00-14.30

Haus zur Lieben Hand lunch

14.30-16.00 Small Stories from a Narratological Perspective - Chair: Sylvie Patron

Monika Fludernik (U. Freiburg) "The Narrative Structure of Small Stories"

Sylvie Patron (U. Paris Diderot): "Dialogue, Small Stories, and Exile Identities in Mario Benedetti's Historias de Paris"

16.00-16.30 Coffee break

16.30-18.30 Small stories in 20th century literature – Chair: Monika Fludernik

Thomas Klinkert & Stefan Pfänder (U. Zürich & U. Freiburg): Can we account for traumatic experiences and fragmented memories as Small Stories? Jorge Semprún's tellings from the perspective of Literature and Oral History"

Cécile de Bary (Université Paris Diderot): "Valérie Mréjen: Small Stories 'out of order'"

19.00 Conference dinner (location t.b.a.)

Saturday 23rd November

9.15-10.45 Chair: Monika Fludernik

Stéphanie Smadja (U. Paris Diderot): "Inner Speech and Small Stories"

Daniel Mandel & Philipp Freyburger (U. Freiburg): Polyphony as means of recipient design: 'own and other voices' in oral history narratives"

10.45-11.15 Coffee break

11.15–12.00 Christopher Koppermann (U. Freiburg): Stories not to be told – A glimpse at avoidance of 'hot topics' in psychotherapy

12.00-13.15 Concluding discussion with lunch buffet